

On Friday, September 23, 2022, Consul-General Kobayashi, visited the U.S. Marine Corp Base, Camp Blaz, and received a briefing on the progress being made with the ongoing construction projects in preparation for the relocation of the U.S. Marines from Okinawa, as well as the measures being implemented by the U.S. Marines with regards to the preservation and mitigation of the Guam cultural artifacts during an onsite inspection tour.

Consul-General Kobayashi (center) OICC (Officer-in-Charge of Construction) Captain Stiles (Right), Camp Blaz Range Officer Mr. Richard (Left)