

Delivery slips can no longer be used to show your eligibility for tax-free

From April 1st, 2025, you will not be eligible for tax-free shopping if you send your tax-free items back home on your own via international parcels.

Please see the details from here.

○For any inquiries, please contact the number showing on the brochure.