

Consul-General Ueda visits Saipan

Consul-General Susumu Ueda from Hagåtña (Guam) visited Saipan on March 26.

During his visit, Consul-General Ueda paid courtesy calls on the Honorable David M. Apatang, Governor of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Honorable Ramon “RB” Jose Blas Camacho, Mayor of Saipan. They discussed ways to further revitalize ties between Japan and the CNMI.

In addition, Consul-General Ueda toured the Northern Mariana Islands Museum of History and Culture and the former Japanese jail site. He also held a meeting with executives of the Japanese Society of the Northern Mariana Islands.
