

Meeting with Associate Professor Kentaro Minami from the Kyoto Tachibana University

On September 14th, Associate Professor Kentaro Minami from the Kyoto Tachibana University visited the Consular Office of Japan in Saipan and met with Consul Tomi.

During the meeting, opinions were exchanged as Associate Professor Minami, who specializes in underwater archaeology, shared his perspective on the future handling measure pertaining to offshore war heritage sites located in the ocean floor of Saipan. Along with possible exchange program through history major students conducting a survey on war heritage site.

