

Meeting with the delegates from Global Okinawa Youth Academy

On September 14th, faculty, high-school and university exchange students from the Global Youth Okinawa Academy (GOYA) visited the Consular Office of Japan in Saipan.

Consul Tomi explained about Saipan and CNMI's politic, economy, history and relationship with Japan, followed with lively Q&A session.

The group visited historical war heritage sites on Saipan, conduct courtesy visit towards CNMI delegates and interact with local high-school students. On September 17th and 18th, the group engaged in several programs in Guam and returned to Japan on September 19th.

