

Meeting with the Head of Consulate of the Republic of Korea in Hagatna

On September 24th, Head of Consulate of the Republic of Korea in Hagatna, Honorable Consul Chun Young Kim and mission members visited the Consular Office of Japan in Saipan and met with Consul Tomi.

The Consulate of the Republic of Korea in Hagatna oversees the consular operation in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, alongside with Guam. Mission members of the Consulate of the Republic of Korea in Hagatna frequently visits Saipan to conduct various duties, including providing consular services.

During the meeting, opinions were exchanged on measures to revitalize the interaction between Japan and Saipan, as well as South Korea and Saipan. Along with common challenges that both Japan and South Korea faces.

